Casart Coverings and Mary Douglas Drysdale: A Winning Combination

Casart Coverings™ has partnered with Mary Douglas Drysdale, one of the most published interior designers in America, known for her highly decorative use of color, to create an exclusive line of removable, repositionable, reusable wallcoverings in her favorite hues.

The Mary Douglas Drysdale Signature Color Collection offers 10 original colors in each of Casart's Colorwash and Faux Linen finishes, on an adhesive-backed vinyl canvas that can be easily installed, removed and reused time and again. The colors were chosen by Drysdale to reflect colors she's commonly used in her own projects, including:

Jefferson Yellow, an energetic, welcoming and optimistic color that looks wonderful with bold classical architectural detailing and brings both freshness and striking glamour to a room.

Tuscany Yellow, a happy backdrop for other dazzling colors and patterns—Mary's favorite choice for more rustic or comfortable rooms in a house that she often pairs with deep wood tones, colorful carpets and stone.

Oushak Orange, a warm color that evokes the charm of distant places, featuring an exotic yet comfortable quality that allows the possibility for diverse and romantic color schemes.

Lipstick Plus, a strong pink that delivers impact and character, especially great when paired with deep blue, orange and brown as well as neutrals and hues in the same family for accessories and painted furniture.

French Blue

Early Spring, a perfect choice where a dazzling wall color will bring all the decorating needed to a room, best when paired with soft and neutral tones.

Federal Green, a luscious chromatic expression of lively green that will envelope any room in color and excitement.

French Blue, a lively and self-confident backdrop to any color scheme, working well in both formal and informal spaces but especially in rooms with scenic, outdoor views.

Innocence, aptly named for the color's soft, intimate character, exuding a quality of quiet self-confidence that can live beautifully in a city or country home and blend harmoniously with soft, tactile furnishings to lively and patterned ones.

Whispers of Iri, a blue that offers surprise with romantic sophistication, a color that is quiet but impish and is especially fabulous when blended with rustic surfaces such as stone, rough plaster and terra cotta.

Folly Gray, a wonderful shade of gray blended with green, giving it the advantage of a neutral and the edge of color, making it elegant and welcoming, offering a relaxing mood that can be used in any room.

Mary Douglas Drysdale

"Mary's eye for color and use of decorative finishes is extraordinary and distinct," said Ashley Spencer, decorative painter and founder of Casart Coverings. "As a prominent interior designer, she really understands the value Casart removable wallcoverings provide to today's homeowners and renters, and is the perfect partner to bring this concept and its possibilities to life."

Through her signature line for Casart, she aims to encourage people to be braver with color by providing them with access and inspiration through her own work.

"Seeing how I've used strong colors in my own projects and having access to them in a flexible product like Casart gives people the comfort and ability to create a wonderfully decorated feeling in their own homes," said Drysdale.

The Mary Douglas Drysdale Signature Color Collection is available in three standard sizes: 52 inches wide by 8.5 feet long, 52 inches wide by 11.03 feet long and 52 inches wide by 24.08 feet, and in custom sizes.

The suggested retail price for the Colorwash finish is $12 per square foot. For the Faux Linen finish, it's $15 per square foot.

About Casart Coverings

Folly Gray

Casart® Coverings is the removable, custom, designer wallcovering company that has transformed conventional wallpaper and decorative painting into a new hassle-free design accessory with unprecedented flexibility and style. Casart Coverings (pronounced "Caz-art") offers the look and feel of traditional decorative finishes and modern wallcovering designs on an adhesive vinyl canvas that can be easily repositioned, removed and reused. The result is a wallcovering that is like a changeable slipcover for your wall, allowing designers, homeowners and renters to transform their rooms as often as they like, any way they desire.

Original designs are created by decorative painter and illustrator Ashley Spencer to "feel at home" within a room, enhancing its design. The range of available styles is wide and varied, inspired by historic decorative arts and modern design. Classic decorative and faux wall finishes offer beautiful backdrops to any décor, including: colorwash and faux-padded harlequin paint techniques, organic faux bois (wood) and raw-silk, murals and tromp l'oeil elements. Modern prints and patterns look current and echo the random nature and custom quality of figurative art work that cannot be found in commercial print wallpapers.

Each decorative finish can be custom matched to most any Benjamin Moore or other paint color via Pantone print inks. Murals can also be customized to the purchaser's size requirements and décor. Custom commissioned finishes and murals as well as artistic photography are also available.

There are currently more than 77 available designs in the collection and personal photos can also be submitted for a custom Casart wallcovering. New designs are introduced seasonally.
