

BROADEN YOUR HORIZONS

Contrary to the popular notion, wallpaper can make your space seem, well, more spacious. True, we swear. Wallpapering one or two walls attracts the eye, and the fact that wallpaper goes from floor to ceiling helps to “elongate” a room, making it appear larger. Splurge on your favorite design and watch your space, no matter how petite, grow.

— Stephanie Hepburn

DAYS GONE BY

Designed by Stacey Garcia, the fern tone-on-tone purple wallpaper has stunning visual appeal and plays on the wallpaper of yesterday. It seems perfect for any space, home or office.

$150 per roll at Perch Home, 2844 Magazine St.

DELICIOUS DROPS

Lighting and vantage point make the appearance of this unique wallpaper continuously change. That's partially because it isn't flat. The raised droplets give the paper depth and create visual interest.

$39 and up per roll at Eclectic Home, 8211 Oak St.

DOGGY DOG WORLD

Aptly named Best in Show, this dog-inspired Osborne & Little wallpaper print has a mod silhouette look that makes a cool statement. The fun paper features your favorite pooches in all their competitive glory.

$396 per roll at Interiors & Extras, 324 Metairie Road, Metairie

POWER PLANT

At first glance it looks like traditional wallpaper, but the Power Plant design by New Orleans' Flavor Paper has an edge. Offbeat illustrations of light bulbs and electrical plugs are woven throughout the blue flora on a bronzed background.

$200 per roll at Flavor Paper, 4213 Chartres St.

STICKY SITUATIONS

This in-house designed, self-adhesive wall covering can be repositioned, removed and reused — making it ideal for the fickle. Sophisticated modern wall finishes such as zebra wood, faux linen and colorwash upgrade a space without the labor required for regular wallpaper. The best part is that when you get bored, you can simply take the stuff down and reposition it elsewhere.

$312 and up per roll at Casartcoverings.com

'FLY WALLS

These whimsical butterflies add texture and depth to a room. While they also come in a fun raspberry-honey combination, we think the Butterfly Jubilee in licorice-earl grey is a versatile match for a multitude of styles. Made of 100 percent organic canvas and non-toxic pigment, the paper is also eco-friendly.

$75 per roll at Spruce Eco Showroom & Studio, 3713 Magazine St.

ALPHABET SAFARI

This fabulous Animalia Safari Wallpaper in Bushman Brown is a great way to cater to your child's imagination without sacrificing your decor standards. The paper shows lions, monkeys, elephants, and giraffes, whose bodies are created using the letters of their names.

$155 per roll at Designpublic.com

